TO: Members, Oklahoma Association of Municipal Attorneys

FROM: Patrick Boulden, President

SUBJECT: 2017-2018 OAMA Membership Renewal

Once again, it is time for your municipality to renew its membership in the Oklahoma Association of Municipal Attorneys. If you have not yet joined OAMA, the benefits are many. OAMA exists to help municipal attorneys in the highly specialized field of municipal law. The member cities and towns through their attorneys operate the organization.

Collectively, we can provide each other with a wealth of experience and expertise. The OAMA is a non-profit corporation dedicated to sharing that expertise for the benefit of municipal officials. To assist you in this, we prepare a Directory of Municipal Attorneys as a membership service.

OAMA functions include:

1. A Network.

You can compare ideas and materials with other municipal attorneys. Also, the Board of Directors is structured to give a voice to municipalities of all sizes. OAMA has contracted with OML for administrative services and headquarters. Our sole source of funding is the membership fees. OAMA's services are limited necessarily to members only. When municipal attorneys pool our expertise, we enhance the overall practice of local government law.

2. Seminars.

OAMA sponsors at least two (2) educational opportunities a year; one in the spring and one at OML's annual fall conference. Our programs have presumptive OBA mandatory CLE credit. These seminars are valuable not merely for the lectures and papers but especially for the discussions among all participants about how they face similar issues. A special membership rate provides an additional advantage to attorneys representing OAMA cities and towns.

3. Newsletter.

Every quarter OAMA publishes The Municipal Counselor, a newsletter which contains articles on timely topics, case digests and comments, and news. The Municipal Counselor is supplemented from time to time with legislative updates and Attorney General Opinions bearing on Oklahoma municipal operations.

4. Municipal Law Library.

The library collected by Dr. Maurice Merrill has been relocated and maintained at the Oklahoma Municipal League building. It is available for use by OAMA members.

5. Membership Directory

A membership directory of all municipal attorney's in Oklahoma.

We have enclosed a fee schedule and membership form for your convenience to renew your membership with OAMA, and allowing you to continue to receive these benefits throughout the 2017-2018 membership year.
